These Brotherhood candidates should bring the following items with them Friday night; (1) a home-made Indian costume, (2) a carved wooden arrow, (3) work clothes, (4) and $1.00 for a Brotherhood sash. A questionaire will be mailed to them before the meeting. They must be able to answer these questions pertaining to the O.A. by Friday night, March 11.

Chapter chiefs should see that all members are contacted about the meeting. Also, they need to contact Ed Brown, 912 1st Ave, Albany, by March 10 to tell him how many chapter members, including Brotherhood candidates, will attend the lodge function. DRE ABOUT AREA CONFERENCE

The deadline for registration to attend the 1966 Area Conference has been extended to April 1. This extra time will give many of you another chance to sign up for this important Order of the Arrow event. Remember, our lodge's quota is 35 delegates. There are still several vacancies so those who wish can pay the registration fee of $5.00 at the March lodge meeting.

This year's Arca 6-D Conference, to be held near Columbus, Georgia, April 22-24, will have an outstanding program of events. They will include a banquet-type supper with an internationally known speaker, a Vigil Rocognition ceremony, films that were used at the last National Conference, and many other activities still being planned. Other highlights of the conference include the designed 10 color patch and neckerchief, Dr. E. Urner Goodman's original sash, and cheaper fees.

All chapters should be sure to stress this all-important area function at your meetings and through other forms of communication. Let's make our lodge give a great impression on all delegates at the conference.

LODGE NECKERCHIEFS

A reply has recently been received from one of the companies written to about new lodge neckerchiefs. The company has sent us a multi-colored embroidered replica of what our neckerchief would look like if they produced it. The Executive Committee will review the sample and rates and then let the lodge vote on the issue at the March meeting.
